In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the criminal complaint and the information provided in the pretrial services report and at the detention hearing establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

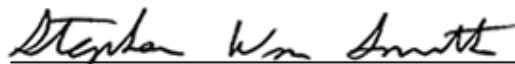

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 28-year old born in Amsterdam who is a legal permanent resident of the United States. His parents and one sister live in Las Vegas, Nevada. He lived in Houston through high school, and lived in several other cities before returning to Houston last year. He reports that he has been self-employed for seven months as a soccer coach. His personal and employment history is self-reported and is uncorroborated. His financial ties to the community are tenuous.
2. Defendant possesses a passport issued by the Kingdom of the Netherlands.
3. Defendant has been charged with access device fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1029(a)(2) and (b)(2). The charges against Defendant carry penalties of lengthy prison sentences.
4. Defendant does not have any known criminal history, but information submitted in the detention hearing establishes that defendant has been a fugitive from justice.
5. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
